Art Unit: 3744

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. Claims 1-3 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Steffenhagen in view of Dick. Steffenhagen discloses the claimed invention except for the ribs. Dick teaches a dispenser for material including an auger and ribs 52 extending into the collection cavity 60. The placement of the ribs is considered to be a matter of obvious choice, as no criticality or unexpected results are seen or have been demonstrated for the ribs being located on the bottom wall. It would be obvious to provide Steffenhagen with ribs, in view of Dick, for the purpose of positively guiding the ice into the cavity.

3. Claims 4-6 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

4. Claims 7-13 and 15-18 are allowed.

5. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
